

1 | COMPANY

Capagility is an Australian-owned, veteran-operated professional services company specialising in Defence, aerospace and aviation. The team provides experienced engineering, technical, commercial and advisory professionals to support complex capability, acquisition, sustainment and operational challenges.

Core strength: multidisciplinary practitioners who combine technical depth, operational understanding and commercial acumen.

2 | CORE CAPABILITIES

- Systems & aerospace engineering
- Aircraft asset management
- Capability development & acquisition
- Cost analysis & sustainment
- Project management
- Airworthiness, safety & compliance
- Procurement, contracting & commercial
- Military & civil aviation operations

3 | RECENT DEFENCE EXPERIENCE

Recent and relevant Defence experience includes:

- Australian Propulsion Centre of Excellence (APCoE)
- MQ-28A Ghost Bat – Flight Management System Engineering Support
- AIR5349 Phase 6 – Advanced Growler
- Next Generation Jammer (NGJ) Transition into Service
- AARGM-ER and LRASM live-fire planning
- IOT&E planning and MTES EW analysis and support
- DSTG project management and support

4 | VALUE TO BAE SYSTEMS

Capagility provides rapid access to experienced Australian Defence and aerospace practitioners who can integrate into established teams and address specialist capability gaps.

The company can support complex programs across the full capability lifecycle, helping accelerate delivery, strengthen technical and commercial decision-making, manage risk and improve capability and value-for-money outcomes.

Flexible SME model | Specialist expertise | Practical delivery | Defence experience